Women in Mathematics in the Netherlands

Maria Vlasiou & Anna Kruseman

Eindhoven University of Technology, The Netherlands & Utrecht University, The Netherlands

Mathematicians at Dutch universities in 2014

Gender (%) at universities in the Netherlands (all disciplines) in 2017

National positive initiatives
- Ministry provides 5 million euros for 100 additional female professors
- Netherlands Organisation for Scientific Research (NWO) has special grants for women
- NWO aims for gender balance in grant awarding committees
- NWO aims for gender balance in funded proposals
- National funding for women associations
- Organisations devoted to promoting science

Local initiatives at universities
- Nanny fund for traveling while taking care of small children
- Females only tenure track positions
- Diversity offices

EWM-NL actions
- Mentor network
- Grants
- Events
- Workshops for career building
- Lobbying for gender sensitive policy (on local and national levels)

Membership of EWM-NL
(Dutch Association of female Mathematicians)

“We are proud of our male members!

Membership of the KWG
(Dutch Royal Mathematical Society)

Funding by the Netherlands Organisation for Scientific Research (NWO) in 2014

Dutch Association of Teachers in Mathematics

Females (%) within Science, Math and Computing graduates in 2017

Contact
www.EWMnetherlands.nl
info@EWMnetherlands.nl

Sources
The Netherlands Organisation for Scientific Research (NWO), The Dutch Royal Mathematical Society (KWG), Dutch Network of Women Professors (LNVH), Dutch Association of Teachers in Mathematics (NVvW), Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD).